State Of Missouri

Charles Lee Thornton, Plaintiff,

Vs.

Cause No. 93-1

City of Kirkwood ET.AL., Defendants.

Division

Complaint Seeking Preliminary Injunction Without Notice.

If Plaintiff is required to give Defendant notice of the application for preliminary injunction, it would cause a delay in issuance of the preliminary injunction of at least 15 days, and by reason of this delay, Plaintiff will suffer irreparable damage for the reason that the City of Kirkwood did willfully and wrongfully interrupt Plaintiff from speaking during 2 (two) previous City Council Meetings. Plaintiff was forced to stop speaking, handcuffed and forcefully removed from the meetings. These actions were taken only after 5 (five) SECONDS of speaking during a no speaking time limit Public Hearing Meeting and only after 3 (three) SECONDS during a 3 (three) Minute time limit Public Comment section. Both times, Plaintiff followed protocol and was called to present by the Mayor in charge. The Right to Redress Grievances In addition, Plaintiff's Rights to Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness, should not be denied by these City Officials. Only a Preliminary Injunction Without Notice would prevent the City of Kirkwood, Mayor, City Council, City Administrator, City Attorney, Chief of Police and with their associates, from being more creative in their arresting techniques, of my Missouri and United States Constitutional Right to speak at these meetings. This will allow the City of Kirkwood to conduct the City's Business as usual, without Further damage of Humiliation, and Cost, and Mental Anguish caused to Plaintiff during the Public Hearing section and Public Comment section on this upcoming meetings on January 18, 2007.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff respectfully request this Honorable Court enter judgment in Plaintiff's favor, and grant this Preliminary Injunction Without Notice and for such other and further relief as this Court deems just and proper under the laws of this State and circumstances presiding over for justice.

Respectfully submitted

Charles Lee Thornton

Plaintiff, Pro Se.
